

The Namuja Economic Development Organization, with the aim of meeting the protein needs of the country's vast population, leased individual owned ponds last fiscal year and undertook a fish farming project. The expenditure incurred on the project is 316,900.