

Namuja Economic Development Organization - NEDO has been conducting seminars on medicine distribution, mother and child treatment, family planning among the poor, neglected sections of the society since birth.

key areas of focus:

- Poor and neglected sections of society: NEDO seems to prioritize those who are most vulnerable and have limited access to resources.
- Community-based programs: Their seminars likely take place within communities to ensure accessibility and relevance to local needs.

Potential impact:

- Improved health outcomes: By providing essential healthcare services and education, NEDO can contribute to better health and well-being, especially among women and children.
- Empowerment of women: Family planning programs can empower women to make informed choices about their reproductive health.
- Economic development: By improving health and well-being, NEDO can indirectly contribute to economic development by enabling individuals to participate more fully in the workforce.

To learn more about NEDO, you might want to:

- Visit their website: If they have one, it will likely provide detailed information about their activities, programs, and impact.
- Contact us directly: You can reach out to NEDO via email or phone to inquire about our work and how you can support our efforts.