

Namuja Economic Development Organization-NEDO has been conducting advocacy activities to create mass awareness on the rights of children from birth. Helping abused children, street children, abandoned children, disabled children, mentally challenged children and children affected by natural calamities and families of children facing various problems.

key areas of focus:

- Child rights advocacy: NEDO works to raise awareness about the rights of children, ensuring that they are protected and respected.
- Assistance for vulnerable children: They provide direct support to children who have been abused, are living on the streets, have been abandoned, or are facing other challenges.
- Support for children with disabilities: NEDO helps children with disabilities to access education, healthcare, and other essential services.
- Crisis response: They assist children and their families who have been affected by natural calamities or other crises.

Potential impact:

- Improved well-being of children: NEDO's work helps to ensure that children have access to the resources and support they need to thrive.
- Justice for abused children: By advocating for the rights of abused children, NEDO can help to bring perpetrators to justice and prevent future abuse.
- Social inclusion: NEDO's efforts to support children with disabilities and those living in poverty contribute to a more inclusive and equitable society.

To learn more about NEDO's specific programs and initiatives, you might want to:

- Visit their website: If they have one, it will likely provide detailed information about their work and how you can support our efforts.
- Contact them directly: You can reach out to NEDO via email or phone to inquire about our programs and how you can get involved.